2017

Arcana Imperii. Art Research on Bureaucracy

Oriol Fontdevila
CENTRE DEL CARME

Arcana Imperii holds projects of artists that take bureocracy as the media to produce their work. Facing the symptoms of exhaustion that the representative democracy shows up these days, Arcana Imperii starts from the premise that a political change cannot occur whether it doesn't involve the bureaucracy. The exhibition launches a bunch of new brand projects there has been produced questioning several aspects of the Valencian administration, which are showed together wih other projects that interpellate diffent administration systems from around the world.